SYRACUSE, N. Y. Dec. 30, 1902.

My Dear Mr. Robinson,

This is about the first chance I have, since Sunday to give vent to my desire to tell you how much your sermon was appreciated by us all last Sunday. I heard many expressions very favorable to you. I feel that the good Lord is not with-holding his blessings from you, and I shall, certainly enjoy your sucess with you.

Can you bring with you to-morrow evening about 15 or 20 copies of your topical studies, if you have them, I want to mail them to my class so that they may look them over, as we have not yet decided upon them.

I expect to be at the prayer-meeting to-morrow night.

Hastily yours.

My dear Mr. & Mrs. Robinson:-

We missed you at church to-day and I was so sorry to hear of your little boy's illness. The nature of it is sad indeed for all of you. I know all about it for two of my children at different times have passed through it. Most sincerely I hope that your little boy may be as comfortable

as possible and you must not worry any more than you can help for doctors now-a-days know so much better than they used to handle it successfully.
If there is anything
we can do for you please call upon us.

Very sincerely
the Elements Mary J. Grant
